Employer-owned or employer-arranged housing description:

*Life Skills Center The Life Skills Center is at the heart of campus and employee living. Donated by Bill and Jane Marcil the Life Skills Center was created to implement a space that brings employees together to do great work as well as to create a space that enriches our employees social and educational lives, and it does just that. It is based around the Elkhorn Quarters where most of our employee housing is located and is right next to the Spirit of Work lodge which houses our volunteers. It serves as our activity center, information base, and cafeteria location. You can look forward to the following amenities at the Life Skills Center... *Fitness Center *Social/Activity Room *Resource Room with study areas and computers *Prayer & Reflection Room *Dining Center *Music Rooms English Language Learning Classroom This building is also home to the Medora Musical Rehearsal Hall, the reservation center, and a training room. Life skills classes on various topics will be held in the training room throughout the summer season. These courses are free for employees to attend. During the summer season, there are no kitchens available for use by seasonal staff. However, we do have microwaves available for use in centrally located areas. Shuttle services to Wal-Mart in Dickinson will be made available weekly. During the fall and spring season, a lunchtime meal option may be available to seasonal staff. Kitchen use will be made available when the Life Skills Center cafeteria is closed. Housing Seasonal employee housing consists of motel-style rooms and double occupancy dormitory rooms. Other housing and a limited number of RV sites with water, sewer and electrical hook-ups are also available, however, the majority of summer employees are housed in dormitories and motel-style rooms. The 2019 housing cost is $40/week for a shared room and $65/week for a single room. Employee housing costs are deducted from employee paychecks. Housing assignments are made based on availability with employees' preferences taken into consideration. Housing is available only to those employees who are 18 and older. The dormitory has centrally located restrooms and shower facilities. Blankets, pillows, towels, washcloths, and other linens are provided by TRMF, however employees are welcome to bring their own linens. It is the employees' responsibility to change their own bed linens and keep their room clean and orderly. Washers and dryers are available at each employee housing location for no charge. The use of toasters, toaster ovens, microwaves, rice cookers, coffee makers or any other type of cooking equipment is not allowed in employee housing. Employees have access to mini-fridges and microwaves in designated areas. Candles and incense are also not permitted. There are room inspections to ensure that this policy is followed. A television, DVD player, and microwave are available in a central lobby of the dormitory for employee use. Please keep in mind that closet and storage space is limited. TRMF will not be liable for loss of personal belongings. Renter's insurance is recommended. No pets of any kind are allowed or tolerated in seasonal employee housing. Employees who are found to have pets in their employee housing will be issued a large pet cleaning fine and will likely lose the privilege of receiving employee housing. Employees must follow proper check-in and check-out procedures for employee housing. Rooms must be cleaned and assessed by housing managers, and keys must be returned. Failure to follow this policy will result in cost assessments. Terminated employees are required to vacate housing immediately, and they are responsible for making their own travel arrangements out of the area.

Grooming Requirements:

It is a requirement that all TRMF employees exhibit a professional appearance as a basic condition of employment. Employees are expected to attend work having showered and applied deodorant. Hair, including mustache, beard and sideburns, must be clean, well-managed. A reasonable effort to cover tattoos should be made while also following uniform guidelines. Makeup must be of natural and modest application. Employees may be asked to adjust their wardrobe or appearance as managers see fit.

Second Job Availability: Yes, likely

Applicable Company Policies:

All TRMF employees should come to Medora prepared with the following uniform attire to accompany the black uniform polo that many of our customer service employees and any employee who works at the Medora Musical in the evening will be assigned. You must have the following: At least two pairs of either neat blue jeans or khaki pants. No holes, excess distressing or decoration. They must be of a moderate fit (not extremely tight and not baggy). Brown or black shoes or neutral tennis shoes will also be permitted in most departments (no open toed shoes or sandals). A brown or black leather belt—employees may be asked to tuck in their uniform when at work. Some employees might also want to bring the following in case they are interested in being available to help with catered events: One pair of black dress pants Black shoes (no open toed shoes or sandals).

For most positions, employees receive three polo shirts as their uniform. Employees will be charged for lost or damaged uniforms. Note - employees nametags come with a magnetic backing to secure it to uniform shirts. Hired applicants with pacemakers should contact us ahead of time so that an alternate securing device can be arranged.

No smoking is allowed in any employee housing properties. This includes, but is not limited to, hookah pipes, e-cigarettes, cigarettes, and cigars. Marijuana is illegal in the state of North Dakota employees may not possess this, or other illegal substances, within TRMF housing. If an employee is found to have been smoking or using illegal substances within TRMF property, the employee will forfeit part of their end of season bonus and may face legal consequences. All North Dakota state and Federal laws must be followed.

Smoking and Tobacco Policy Smoking and any tobacco use is strictly prohibited in TRMF owned or leased buildings, including, but not limited to, offices, hallways, waiting rooms, restrooms, lunch rooms, elevators, meeting rooms and other areas. Smoking is also prohibited in TRMF vehicles, garages and storage buildings. In addition, no smoking is allowed at the Schafer Center Patio, the Downtown Patio, the Tjaden Terrace, Old Town Hall Theater, or the Burning Hills Amphitheatre. Employees should make a reasonable effort to be out of the way of guests as much as possible. If using e-cigarettes, employees are required to follow the same smoking policy. E-cigarettes must not be charged in the workplace. Employees caught smoking in these areas or breaking the smoking policy will be reported to Human Resources. The first time an employee is caught smoking will result in a warning. More than one warning will result in a $25.00 fine. Failure to comply with this policy could result in further discipline, up to and including termination. This policy applies to all employees. Clients, contractors, and visitors must also only smoke in designated smoking areas of town. TRMF will comply with all state and local ordinances controlling smoking in the workplace including you must be at least 20 feet away from building entrance, exit, operable window, air intake, or ventilation system of enclosed areas of TRMF facilities. Please dispose of cigarette butts/tobacco products properly. Employees with inquiries or complaints about smoking in the workplace are asked to report them to the Human Resources Department.

Attendance & Tardiness - Every employee's job is necessary for the efficient operation of TRMF, and TRMF depends on their employees to be on time when you are scheduled to work. It is an essential function of each job for the employee to be on the job and ready for work at the prescribed time every day they are assigned. If an employee will be late or cannot come to work, they must contact their supervisor as early as possible prior to the start of their shift. Multiple absences or late arrivals may be cause for termination. They must notify their manager/supervisor personally. Talking to a coworker or leaving a message is not acceptable. Phone calls or face to face conversations are encouraged.

Schedule and Overtime Policies - Schedules will be posted in each work area. Employees are scheduled approximately 30-40 hours/week. Hours scheduled will vary depending on time of year, weather, and business levels. Extra hours are available at the Medora Musical and Pitchfork Steak Fondue June through September, up to a maximum of 50 hours each week unless manager approval is obtained. Overtime is paid to all non-exempt employees after 40 hours of work. Hours paid but not actually worked, if any, are not included in calculating overtime. Employees will be scheduled to work five or six days per week, including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. Schedules may vary from week to week. Some positions may require employees to work split shifts. Employee requests for specific shifts or days off will be accommodated when possible, but are not guaranteed and are at the discretion of the scheduler. Employees are allowed one three-day period off for college registration/orientation. Please note that employees may not trade hours without a supervisor's approval. No pay is given for time off.
